SOUTHEAST SASK'S FAVOURITE PRINTER

Graphic Press has been keeping Estevan, Saskatchewan looking sharp since 1979 — that's over 45 years of ink, ideas, and a whole lot of coffee. We've been lucky enough to be voted the best print shop and best graphic design team more times than we can count (okay, we could count, but we're too busy making awesome stuff). Our team mixes creativity, experience, and a dash of stubborn perfectionism to make sure everything we print looks top-notch.

We print just about everything you can think of — business cards, banners, menus, signs, event programs — you name it, we've probably printed it. We proudly serve a wide range of industries, from oilfield and restaurants to retail shops and big events. Whether you need something classy, flashy, or a little bit sassy, we've got your back (and your front, if you need a two-sided brochure).

PRINTING PROCESSES

DIGITAL PRINTING

Digital printing is more common to the laser printer you might have at home or work. An image is digitally transferred from the computer to the digital printing press. It uses electrostatic rollers (drums) to apply toner to the sheets of paper in four different colours (CMYK) overlayed to create over 16,000 colours.

Digital printing is ideal for smaller projects as it requires minimal setup, and can create full colour images that are great for marketing products.

OFFSET PRINTING

Our offset printing process uses synthetic “plates” which transfer an image that is on the plate onto a rubber “blanket”, and then rolls that image onto a sheet of paper. Offset presses are limited in options, and require more setup, but are perfect for projects like forms and envelopes which are typically ordered in large quantities and have more simple, one and two colour images.

WIDE-FORMAT PRINTING

Our wide format printing services are ideal for projects that require both size and accuracy. We can print up to 36 inches wide, producing everything from vibrant posters to detailed blueprints, engineering drawings, and sewing patterns. In addition to printing, we also offer wide format scanning up to 36 inches wide—perfect for preserving aging or important original documents with clarity and care. Whether you need to create, duplicate, or archive large-format materials, we’ve got you covered.

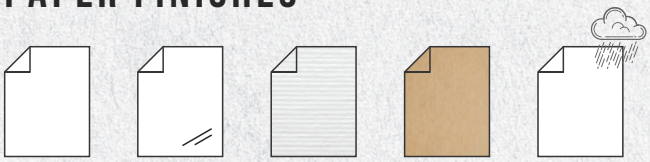

PAPERS

At Graphic Press, we take pride in using high-quality papers that reflect both your brand's image and our commitment to sustainability. Whenever possible, we choose Canadian-made paper stocks to support local mills and reduce our environmental footprint. Our paper lineup includes a wide range of options—like smooth uncoated stocks for a clean, tactile finish, and gloss or dull coated papers that make images pop with vibrant clarity. For a more organic or rustic feel, we offer natural kraft papers, and for something with a touch of elegance, our textured linen stocks deliver a refined, premium look.

Most of the papers we use are FSC® certified, meaning they come from responsibly managed forests that meet the highest environmental and social standards. This allows our clients to print with confidence, knowing their projects are not only professionally produced but also eco-conscious. Whether you're printing business cards, brochures, packaging, or invitations, we have the right paper to match your style, values, and sustainability goals.

BOOKLETS & MANUALS

Sprial Plastic Coil Bound Books

Plastic spiral coil books are a durable and flexible binding option ideal for documents that need to lay flat or fold back on themselves. The sturdy plastic coil allows for easy page turning and long-term use, making it perfect for high-traffic materials like safety manuals, training guides, instruction booklets, cookbooks, and even textbooks. This binding method accommodates a wide range of page counts and sizes, making it versatile for everything from compact field manuals to full-size reference books. It's a practical and professional choice for any document that needs to withstand frequent handling.

Wire-O Bound Books

Wire-O bound books offer a sleek, professional finish with excellent durability and functionality. The double-loop wire binding allows pages to turn smoothly and lay completely flat, making them ideal for materials that need to look sharp and perform well—like sales catalogues, restaurant menus, product manuals, and calendars. With a more polished appearance than plastic coil, Wire-O binding is a popular choice when presentation matters just as much as practicality.

Saddle Stitched Books

Saddle stitched books are a clean, cost-effective binding option perfect for smaller booklets and short publications. Using staples along the spine, this method is ideal for projects like event programs, product brochures, newsletters, and instruction manuals. Saddle stitching allows the booklet to lay relatively flat when open, making it easy to read and handle. It’s a great choice for multi-page documents that need a professional look without a high production cost.

CARBON FORMS

Carbon forms are a practical and professional solution for businesses that need instant duplicates of handwritten or impact-printed documents. Commonly used as receipts, invoices, job tickets, safety checklists, and bills of lading, these forms are essential for record-keeping in industries like transportation, construction, and retail. They're especially handy for employees working in the field, oil patch, or remote locations where digital systems aren't always accessible. Available in 2-part, 3-part, or more, they let you keep a copy while providing one to your customer, office, or supervisor.

To keep everything organized, we offer sequential numbering—perfect for tracking jobs, deliveries, or form submissions. Whether you need standard sizes or fully customized layouts, we can print your forms with your logo, branding, and any required fields. From day-to-day operations to compliance documentation, carbon forms remain a simple but powerful tool for staying efficient and professional, even off the grid.
